Today, I will talk about my dog, Karen. When I was ten, I first saw her at a pet shop. That was ①fifteen years ago. She was a newborn dog then.

My parents and I looked for a new dog because we lost our old dog. One day, we went to the pet shop near our house to buy a new dog. In the shop, there were many dogs. There were big and small dogs, and white and black dogs. We looked around the shop. Soon, I found her. She was ②(sleep) in a small box. She was very cute. I asked my parents, “③Can I keep her?” They said yes. She became a member of my family then.

Karen was very small. She was only as big as the palm of my hand. At first, she couldn't go to the toilet or eat food (④) herself. ⑤(her / many things / taught / I).

She liked to run around in the garden of my house. When it snowed a lot in winter, she was very excited. She ran around in the garden every day. But in summer, it was very (⑥) in the daytime. She didn't like to go outside, so she was always in my house.

She slept outside in a kennel in winter. But in summer, she slept on the floor of my house. Why did she sleep ⑦there in summer? She liked to sleep there because the floor felt cool.

Now she is fifteen. She is much bigger than before. Now, I can't hold her in my palm. Also, she can't run in the garden any more because she is too old. Sometimes, she ⑧(for / sleeps / time / a long). But when I come back from my work, she always comes to me and barks at me. Her bark makes me happy. I will love her forever.
